Some Review Excerpts from the Original "Supreme Ruler 2010"...

Worthplaying.com (Score: 8.7 / 10)

"SR2010 is a brilliant, challenging and rewarding game... Wargamers that thrive on large scale battles across the European continent should set their sights higher and try the full breadth of SR2010. It's a very well executed game that delivers on every bullet point of its enticing feature list, a rare achievement."

"...gripped me with the steely claw of game addiction not felt since the last installment in the Civ series."

"Games like this are exactly the games that EA and Microsoft are incapable of pulling off because they lack the guts."

Wham Gaming (Score: 8.5 / 10)

"Supreme Ruler 2010 provides wide possibilities for game play with lots of replayability. It is well suited for those who enjoy a complex and detailed strategy game."

Artificial Wisdom (A recent "Featured Game")

"We recommend this game for individuals who like strategy games with detail, who like games about the real world, and who would enjoy the challenge of building a real nation into a powerhouse that dominates all competing nations, either through superior economics or military conquest. SR 2010 is one of GRADE's highest rated games for 2005."

GamesFirst (Score: 4 / 5)

"...an incredibly dynamic and captivating world to conquer... This game is incredibly fun."

Wargamer

"Supreme Ruler 2010 is a great geopolitical simulator, and I can heartily recommend this game for any wargamer that loves detail and peeling back layers to find even more machinery underneath."

Winner of the 2006 CAAEA "BEST PC GAME" Award!
